

Insures Correct, Proper Carriage

Here is a Shoulder Brace that makes the correction of any inclination to round or stooping shoulders an easy matter.

Reall

have been pronounced by experts to be the solution of the shoulder brace difficulty.

Being constructed entirely of cloth and with no metal parts to bind or chafe, they do not give one that trussed-up sensation that accompanies the wearing of the usual brace, nor is it possible for them to interfere with the circulation.

The Reall Brace may be worn by either sex and we have them in all sizes suitable for the child of four years or the adult weighing three hundred pounds. Your chest measurement is all that is necessary to properly fit you.

We have the exclusive agency for this city.

DENVER MAY LOSE ITS MILITARY DIVISION

ST. LOUIS WILL BE MADE HEAD-QUARTERS FOR THE WHOLE WEST

Denver, May 9.—Army headquarters in Denver has received word of a sweeping reorganization to be made by the war department which probably will result in this city's losing its present department headquarters. St. Louis is to become the chief military center of the United States, according to plans of the war department. The plan is part of a broad scheme of reorganization. Five divisions will be created. These will be the division of the east, headquarters at New York; central division, headquarters at St. Louis; western division, headquarters at San Francisco. The division of Hawaii and Panama and the division of the Philippines. The proposed central division will embrace the present departments of the Missouri, the Lakes, the Colorado and Texas.

Information of the proposed reorganization of the army was not unexpected at headquarters in this city. "It is all along the line of economy," say the officers. "The proposed change will save the country $500,000 a year, mainly in the purchasing departments of the army."

Should the plans of the war department be carried out Denver would, of course, lose the department headquarters, but would, in the opinion of officers here, surely be selected as a brigade headquarters. Under the proposed reorganization the several divisions would be subdivided into brigades and this city would be named as head of its district.

EFFECT OF ONE BOTTLE

Crandall, Tex.—"After my last spell of sickness," writes Mrs. Belle Teal, of this city, "I remained very ill, and stayed in bed for eight weeks. I couldn't get up, all this time, and though my doctor came to see me every day, he didn't do me any good. I had taken but one bottle of Cardui, when I was up, going everywhere, and soon I was doing all my housework." Cardui helps when other medicines have failed, because it contains ingredients not found in any other medicine. Pure, safe, reliable, gentle—Cardui is the ideal medicinal tonic for weak, sick women. Try it.

ELKS IN SESSION

Greenville, Miss., May 9.—Greenville is in gala attire for the annual convention of the Mississippi Elks. Automobile rides, steamboat excursions, balls and banquets are included in the two days' entertainment program.

Young Mothers

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both she and her coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby too is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

Mother's Friend

BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Politics and Politicians.

The primary campaign for the Kentucky governorship is now on in full blast.

Of the 22 new members now sitting in the United States senate, nine have made their own fortunes.

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho conducts a Bible class in one of the Presbyterian churches in the national capital.

The first republican club formed to boom President Taft for renomination has just been launched in New Jersey.

A special election is to be held in the Second district of Pennsylvania this month to choose a successor to the late Congressman Joel Cook.

W. E. Monday, a former postmaster of Knoxville, has been selected to succeed ex-Congressman Hale as republican national committeeman for Tennessee.

John W. Watson, who has a record of more than fifteen years' service in the Florida legislature, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for governor.

For the first time in years all but a few of the chairmanships of the important committees of the house of representatives are now held by Southern democrats.

Eleven Scandinavians now hold seats in congress, two being senators. Ten of them are republicans and all of them are allied with the "progressive" wing of their party.

United States Senators Martin and Swanson and Representative Carter Glass and William Jones, who are after the senatorships in Virginia, will have to pay about $3,000 each to enter the democratic primary.

Under the Crumpacker reapportionment bill there will be 72 additional delegates to the national convention of 1912. In 1908 there were 980 delegates to the republican national convention and 1,006 delegates to the democratic national convention.

It is expected that more than 1,000 democratic leaders of the Dakotas, Montana, Iowa, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Minnesota and probably Michigan and Wisconsin will attend the big democratic conference of the Northwest, which has been called to assemble in St. Paul early next month.

Senator Gronna of North Dakota is one of the self-made members of the upper branch of congress. Equipped with only a common school education he served his apprenticeship as a country school teacher before he found his opportunity to acquire land in the undeveloped frontier and emerged as a prosperous banker and merchant.

Jerry South, of Arkansas, who has succeeded William J. Browning, of New Jersey, as chief clerk of the national house of representatives, has had an interesting and checkered career. One of the most exciting chapters of his early career in the Southwest had to do with the famous murder of the Meeks family in Missouri. A few days after the family of five had been slain, Mr. Smith was on his way to a political convention in Little Rock. Stopping at a crossroads town en route his attention was attracted to two strangers and his conversation with them led to his suspicion that they were Taylor brothers, the two bankers who were suspected of the wholesale murders. Mr. South borrowed a shotgun and captured the two men single handed on a lonely road outside the town. He took them to Little Rock with him and delivered them over to the authorities. Later the two bankers were returned to Missouri, tried and convicted of the murders.

Washington, May 9.—Arrangements have been completed for the public funeral tomorrow of General M. Emmet Urell, who died on a visit to Ireland last summer and whose remains were recently returned to this city for burial. General Urell was a noted veteran of the civil war and also fought in the war with Spain. He was a past department commander of the G. A. R., commander-in-chief of the National Army and Navy Spanish War veterans and past exalted ruler of the Elks. The burial will take place at Arlington cemetery, following funeral services at St. Patrick's church.

Abingdon, Va.—Mrs. Jennie McCall, of this place, says, "I had been troubled with female complaints, for over ten years. I could not walk or stand on my feet, and had been almost confined to the house, for a long time. I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I can walk anywhere I want to go. Cardui is worth its weight in gold." This is a high estimate on a plain, herb medicine, yet there are thousands of women who would gladly pay this price for a remedy to relieve their suffering. Cardui has helped others. Why not you? Try it. Your druggist sells it, in $1 bottles.

Do You Have the Right Kind of Help? Foley Kidney Pills furnish you the right kind of help to neutralize and remove the poisons that cause backache, headache, nervousness, and other kidney and bladder ailments." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

INDIANA MINE WORKERS
Terre Haute, Ind., May 9.—A special convention of the Indiana district of the United Mine Workers met today. The convention will reconsider the question of a general strike fund assessment of one-half of 1 per cent of the earnings of members and will also reconsider the action of the recent annual convention creating a fifth member of the executive board, which action has met with much opposition from one of the locals.

LAS VEGAS

THIS VICINITY has a climate of unsurpassed healthfulness without extremes of heat or cold, having nearly 300 days of sunshine in the year.

The water supply is abundant and pure, furnished by mountain streams or from wells of not great depth.

The annual rainfall amounts to nearly 19 inches, average, occurring principally in July and August.

The soil is highly fertile and easy of working, being generally sandy loam especially retentive of moisture.

Land here are lower in price than we know of anywhere else where conditions are equally good.

Crops are principally alfalfa, oats, wheat, potatoes, corn and forage. Sugar beets promise to be profitable.

"Dry Farming," practiced scientifically, is proving to be successful here, a large area being under cultivation.

An irrigation system to cover many thousand acres surrounding the city is now being constructed.

Mining developments in the adjacent mountains are showing up very promising values. Building stone of superior quality is quarried nearby.

The Pecos National Forest, which is near, affords excellent grazing for large numbers of cattle and horses at a nominal cost. Stock raising is a profitable business.

A great natural pleasure ground abounds in this National Forest, with its grand scenery, its trout streams and big game.

Beautiful mountain resorts within easy access of the city are open all the year for health or pleasure seekers.

SWIPED EDIBLES OF RESEARCHERS

CLARE KOOGLER AND CARL ELLIS UP TO THEIR OLD TRICKS AGAIN

Clare Koogler and Carl Ellis "put one over" on the teachers and students of the Normal Botany classes Saturday, according to a story going the rounds in Normalville. The botanists in charge of Professor John C. Baker and other teachers went to the Hot Springs looking for specimens of spring flowers. They took with them a bountiful lunch. Koogler and Ellis, the athletic heroes, were in the same locality on a hunting expedition.

"Smarties, smarties," said one of the girls of the party, "you can't find out lunch this time. I'll bet you can't." Be it said here that Ellis and Koogler have been accused of some clever stunts in grub grabbing at class parties.

The nimrods said nothing but went to the home of Mrs. James Arnett where they represented themselves as botanists and asked for the lunch, which had been left in Mrs. Arnett's keeping. They got the lunch, ate a dozen bananas, the same number of oranges, a cake and other delicacies after which they drank a bottle of cream. They left an interesting note in the cream bottle and hiked, after placing the basket in the old railroad station. Some hungry Mexican dogs found the layout and devoured what "Koog" and Ellis left behind. The botany class returned home hungry.

The Optic does not stand good for the truth of this story. If Ellis and Koogler, who are husky chaps, take exception to the narrative they will find the office door locked and the force "not in" if they take a notion to call. But it's a good story anyhow. Professor Baker whose appetite cannot be equalled between Albuquerque and Denver, is said to have been the most disappointed one in the crowd.

HISTORIC PROPERTY SOLD
New York, May 9.—One of New York's most famous historical estates, known in late years as the Loyal L. Smith holdings on Washington Heights, was put up for sale at public auction today as a preliminary to being subdivided into building lots. Included in the sale was the old mansion, overlooking the Hudson river, which was owned by Aaron Burr in the early part of the nineteenth century and for several years was occupied by President James Madison as a summer home.

CARS FOR WOMEN COMING IN VOGUE

MERE MAN ONLY PERMITTED TO LOOK IN AT ONE END OF COACH

Chicago, May 9.—Cars for women only!

This is the very latest railway innovation, and it is said will soon be inaugurated on the Southern Pacific and possibly the Santa Fe overland trains.

Mere man will be permitted to use and occupy a portion of these cars only. The principal compartment, however, and the largest, will be a parlor, luxuriously furnished, which will be devoted to the exclusive use of women passengers.

Already the Burlington route has placed these cars in service between Chicago and St. Paul, while three weeks ago the Chicago Great Western adopted the plan on some of its trains. The innovation has been hastened by the constantly increasing patronage of women traveling alone, and it is predicted that within a comparatively short time the innovation will be adopted by nearly every railroad of any importance.

It is understood that both the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific are already considering the proposition.

SIGNS OF OLD AGE

Nowadays we see many women otherwise attractive but who, because of stooping shoulders, appear much older than they really are.

This condition is usually caused by carelessly assumed attitudes during the period of maturity which, allowed to go uncorrected, has resulted in a bodily deformity. It is possible to correct these conditions and for every woman to have that erect, graceful carriage, which bespeaks perfectly developed womanhood.

The Reall Shoulder Brace corrects any tendency to round or stooping shoulders—does so without inconvenience or discomfort, and is light and cool. Unlike other braces on the market, it does not continually bind under the arms or across the shoulders, does not give the wearer that "harnessed" sensation produced by most shoulder braces, nor can it interfere with the circulation.

This brace is recommended by medical authorities and is especially adapted for children. We have the exclusive agency for this brace, and are able to fit either sex and any age from the child of four years to the adult weighing 300 pounds. Can be obtained only at our store—The Reall Store. Price $1.00. E. G. Murphey.

In the Wake of the Measles
The little son of Mrs. O. B. Palmer, Little Rock, Ark., had the measles. The result was a severe cough which grew worse and he could not sleep. She says: "One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured him and he has never been bothered since." Croup, whooping cough, measles, cough all yield to Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The genuine is in the yellow package always. Refuse substitutes. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.
